

KIOKO Review

STUDENT — VOICE —

On Thursday 19th October, the reggae band KIOKO performed at Kings Norton Girls School. They all went to KNGS 6th Form and wanted to make a comeback. The band has sung at various events: The biggest was BBC live and Glastonbury.

One student exclaimed they had an 'interesting style' and they were 'truly enjoyable'. Another pupil said 'they brought a great atmosphere' and they 'were really interactive with the audience'.

They have ambitions to make their music more widely spread. If you want to listen to their music, you can get their songs on Deezer and Spotify. Their YouTube account is called KIOKO MUSIC UK. We thoroughly recommend their music.
